BRECKINRIDGE COUNTY DAY AT THE FAIR, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18, IS NAMED

Home-Coming is Planned--Big Dinner Under the Shade Trees--Democratic and Republican Nominees For Governor to Speak.

Wednesday, August 18, the first day of our county fair will be "Breckenridge County Day." This will be the greatest day socially our people will have experienced in the last decade. Everyone in the county is expected to participate in this gathering. It will be crowned "Breckenridge County's Home Coming Day." Every individual in our county who has a relative or friend or an acquaintance, living outside of our county is solicited by our committee to invite them to this homecoming.

Basket Dinner Under the Trees.

Come bring your basket of dinner, tables will be arranged under our beautiful shade trees for the accommodation of the spread. The Democratic and Republican nominees for Governor of Kentucky will deliver addresses of welcome to our guests at the noon hour.

School Children's Day.

Another attraction for this day—it will be christened as "Breckenridge County's School Children's Day," this day will be observed as our school day for Breckinridge county, every teacher in our county is invited to bring their pupils to our fair. All children under 12 years of age will be admitted at the gates free. To the school that has enrolled the greatest number of pupils present on this day, will be presented a banner and a premium of $10.00 in gold will be awarded. This amount is to go to school library or other purposes at school's discretion. Hardinsburg's High and Graded Schools, being largely in excess in numbers of pupils, are excluded from this contest, but all children under 12 years old will be given free admission at the gates.

Co-Operation Wanted.

In addition, we will have a beautiful array of fine stock and an interesting program. We trust that every individual in our county will feel the importance of his co-operation on this occasion, and realize that in unity there is strength. This is our county's enterprise and we plead for your assistance and if accorded us, we know that success will be our crown.

Very truly,
ADVISORY BOARD.

TO THE VOTERS OF BRECKINRIDGE COUNTY.

At the instance of my good friend, Vic Robertson, I came to your county seat (Hardinsburg) on Monday, May 11th, it was my pleasure to mix and mingle with many of your good citizens—the impressions are lasting, I shall always treasure with pride the many courtesies from your hands and the encouragement you gave me in my race for Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics, and now that the election is close at hand I am taking this method of again coming to you reminding you of my interests, and to tell you how profoundly grateful I shall be to each and every voter in your county for his support.

Kentucky is a great State—covers a great area, its resources are rich and grand, so many angles to the situation, I have visited most all the counties within its boundaries, and am glad to tell you my friends are loyal, my new acquaintances are a source of the greatest pleasure to me; I shall always treasure the many kindnesses and assurances of support proffered me by my new friends, and the fidelity and loyalty from the ones who have known me from my boyhood and have espoused my candidacy since my announcement.

It is with a grateful heart that I come to you now with this message which to me, as to all other appreciative souls, is the proudest moment of my life; I have every assurance of my victory on August 7th, my friends throughout Kentucky are responsible for all, I feel confident that my race is won, but from now until after August 7th, is the critical period in my political existence.

When I think of the reception accorded me by Breckinridge county's people, and the many expressions of encouragement you gave me, I naturally feel that I will receive an overwhelmingly big vote from your hands, and in my humble way I wish to thank you each and all from a most appreciative heart for all that you give me, and beg that you remember me loyally and gratefully as a farmer's friend.

Respectfully,
MAT. S. COHEN.

Judge Mercer Complimented.

Among the distinguished visitors in Elizabethtown yesterday was Judge N. McC. Mercer, of Hardinsburg, who is the father of Commissioner Claude Mercer. Judge Mercer is one of Kentucky's finest gentlemen.—The Elizabethtown News.

CHURCH RALLY AT OLD FREEDOM

Sacramental Services at Eleven O'clock. Met Here For 88 Years. Dinner on Ground.

EVERYBODY INVITED.

A goodly number of the people of the county and of the adjoining counties are aware of the fact that "Old Freedom Congregation" is the oldest congregation in the county. They have been worshipping at the same place and the same Sunday (second) for 88 years. Many of our fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters professed religion on or near this sacred spot. Many members of the various churches claim this as their spiritual birth place. We will set aside the hour of two o'clock as the hour. We will line up on the ground and march in church and there have what is known as a "Time and Place Meeting" and come praying that the Lord will give us a Pentecostal blessing. Next Sunday is the day. Come bring your lunch baskets and spend the day together as our forefathers did. This means any one who professed religion there, regardless of church affiliation. Sacramental services at 11 o'clock a. m. Come, you are welcome.

S. B. PAYNE

Irvington, Ky., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—S. B. Payne left Monday morning on an electioneering trip. The citizens of our town and community at large are anxious for Mr. Payne to win the race. Regardless of politics they heartily endorse Mr. Payne as circuit court clerk. He is known as an honored and upright citizen, bearing a name above reproach. He served in the post office for seven years, was not only efficient, but congenial; therefore, we feel that he can fill this office with dignity.

Numerous friends hope for his success and feel that for him to try, means success.

STATE POLITICS

G. B. Likens Only Candidate From Fourth Congressional District.

At the last presidential election the Fourth Congressional District cast 21,932 votes for Woodrow Wilson, one-tenth of the entire Democratic vote in Kentucky, and it has never failed to give loyal support to all Democratic nominees. In the primary election to be held on August 7th the Fourth Congressional District has but one candidate seeking the nomination for State office, and that is G. B. Likens of Ohio county, who aspires to the office of Secretary of State. All other things being equal, Mr. Likens should have the united support of the Fourth District democracy. His friends say that "All other things are MORE than equal;" that his qualifications, his personal integrity, his party loyalty are not excelled by any other candidate running in the August primary.

A stronger candidate or more proficient officer could not be selected. The Fourth District has no Democrat now holding an elective State office at Frankfort, and unless Mr. Likens is nominated it will not be represented on the State ticket. VOTE FOR HIM.

TOM RHEA HAS PROVEN FRIEND TO TAXPAYERS OF KENTUCKY

Played Important Part In Forcing Large Corporations to Pay Their Just Proportion of Taxes and is Best Qualified In Every Way for Auditorship

It is natural and proper that the Democrats of Kentucky should take a deep interest in the selection of their candidate for Governor on August 7, but they should not allow that race to overshadow all others and cause them to neglect or overlook other important races. Especially should they give their attention to the Auditor's race, for that position ranks in importance next to that of Governor.

The Auditor is the head of the fiscal affairs of the state and the head of the important Board of Franchise Assessments which fixes the franchise valuations upon which all corporations doing business in the state must pay taxes. The work of that board is of far-reaching importance to the people, and, above all others, the Auditor, who presides as chairman of the board, should be a man well equipped and trained for its difficult duties, and one who is incorruptible and fearless, ready to compel the corporations to pay their just part of the revenues of the state, without being unjust to any corporation or persons.

Such a man is Thos. S. Rhea, who is asking the nomination from the Democratic party, and there is not a man in Kentucky better qualified for the position or more deserving of the support of the Democrats. As State Treasurer for nearly four years in the present administration, he has been a member of that board and a leading spirit in its splendid work. With his intelligent and active assistance, the franchise assessments upon corporations have been so increased that the state is now receiving several hundred thousand dollars more in revenue every year than ever before. The board has increased the franchise valuation upon all corporations from $48,000,000 to $132,000,000. Four of the largest railroad companies, whose assessments were raised, have carried it into the courts; and, if the courts uphold the action of the board, the increased revenue, together with the large increase from other corporations, which have not contested the raises, will be a great help to the taxpayers, and in a reasonable time aid materially in paying off the indebtedness of the state.

In the four years of this administration, the increase of revenues from the increased assessments of those corporations, which have not made contests, will alone amount to a sum to the state far in excess of a million dollars; and the increase of revenues from the same sources to the counties, cities, towns and school districts will amount to about two million dollars for the same period. Should the courts uphold the action of the board in regard to the four railroad companies, it would add about one million dollars more to the state, and about two million dollars more to the counties, cities, towns and school districts in the same four years.

No man has had more to do with this great work than Tom Rhea, and no man now seeking a nomination for a state office is better prepared than he to render useful and valuable service to the state and to the people in the next four years. No other man seeking this office has ever had the slightest experience with its duties. Some of his enemies, at the beginning of this campaign, undertook to criticize him and his record as an official, but they had to quickly abandon such attacks, because the published facts clearly disproved their misrepresentations. In the next administration, Mr. Rhea would prove himself a tower of strength to the state in the conduct of its revenues and fiscal affairs.

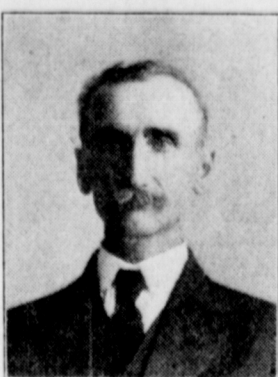

As a Democrat and party worker, there is not a blot upon his record. Four years ago, when he was on the state ticket as the nominee for Treasurer, he added great strength to the ticket, as was shown by the increased majority of 2,500 given in his judicial district alone. Last fall, in the Senatorial and Congressional races, he was chosen by the Democratic State Committee as Campaign Chairman, and under his intelligent and successful management and organization, the Democratic majority in the state was increased to 32,000.

Tom Rhea has always been true to the party and its nominees. He has never bolted nor sulked when things did not go his way in primaries or conventions. The Democratic party in the campaign this fall needs him upon the ticket. No other man can give it greater strength or do more to insure its success in the November election. He is a man of pleasing and attractive personality, free from malice, kind, considerate to all, a temperate and a temperance man, never having touched a drink of alcoholic liquor in all his life, and, all in all, he is a man worthy in the highest degree of the confidence and support of all good citizens.

The Democrats of the state could not find a better man to nominate for any office than Tom Rhea, and, if the signs indicate anything, he will be the nominee for Auditor by a handsome majority in the primary on August 7.

VOTE FOR S. B. PAYNE

For Circuit Court Clerk. Primary, August 7th, 1915
(First Saturday.)

S. B. PAYNE X

To the Republican Voters of Breckenridge County:

When I announced my candidacy for the office of Circuit Court Clerk several months ago, subject to the action of the Republican party at the primary election, August 7, 1915, it was my intention to see every Republican voter in Breckenridge county before the primary; and though I have made a pretty active campaign, yet I realize that I have not seen them all.

Hence, I take this means of addressing you, and hope, not only to reach those whom I have failed to meet, but to have another, a final audience from those I have met.

In this final appeal I desire to state that I have met with strong encouragement from every section of the county, and believe that I shall receive the nomination by an overwhelming majority; but I realize that many a battle is lost after apparent victory is gained by over confidence. Therefore, I appeal to my friends and workers not to relax their efforts or energy in my behalf, ever bearing in mind that "eternal vigilance is the price of safety" in political matters as well as in other affairs.

To those who do not know my record I wish to say that I have descended from perhaps the largest Republican family in the county, and I am located in the 4th Magisterial district, a district that is always Republican; but which has been very meagerly served at the "pie counter," or in the distribution of favors in way of county offices.

In point of experience, I served my district one term as Justice of the Peace and never had an opinion or action reversed.

I served as postmaster at Irvington for several years, and was superseded by a Democrat; not, however until two full years had expired of the Wilson administration. I turned this office over to my successor with no charge of inefficiency or neglect of duty, or discourtesy to any patron ever brought against me, and retain a record with the government as nearly perfect as is ever given a postmaster.

Before casting your ballot I invite the voters to investigate closely, if possible, my business qualifications, morals, habits and integrity and if my qualifications appeal to you, go to the polls August 7th and honor me with the nomination, and I feel confident that with the hearty cooperation of my party thereafter and other true friends, when the ballots are counted in November I will be your next Circuit Court Clerk.

Respectfully,
S. B. PAYNE,
Irvington, Ky.

Ants Are Six Eared.

In the matter of some of their sense organs the ants are more than ordinarily endowed. Strange as it may seem, each ant has at least six ears. Aside from this multiplicity of ears, they are located in just about the queerest place imaginable—on the legs. They seem deaf to all sounds made by the vibration of the air, but detect the slightest possible vibrations of solid material. This is supposed to be to their advantage in that such things as approaching footsteps tell more of the possibility of danger than such sounds as are transmitted through the air. So sensitive are their feet that they detect the impact of a small bird shot dropped on the table from a height of about six inches and about fourteen feet distant from an artificial nest placed at the other end of the table.—St. Nicholas.

The Clerk Guaranteed It.

"A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of the clerks, 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured," writes J. H. Berry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. Obtainable everywhere.

A Sign of Rain.

An east side girl says she has come upon an infallible weather indicator. She can tell if it is going to rain without even glancing at the sky or casting her eyes over the weather forecasts in the daily papers. And it's the simplest thing in the world—just the disappearance of all umbrellas in sight.

"Umbrellas are perfectly safe in our office up to twenty-four hours before a storm," said she, explaining. "You can leave them anywhere. Even the pearl and gold handled ones are immune from abstraction. Indeed, one can hardly chase them away. So if I want to know the weather for a day ahead I must glance at the umbrella racks. If I find them becoming empty I make a bee line for the best rain shade of those that are left and make all other necessary plans for rain."—Columbus Dispatch.

She Needed Them.

"I wish, John," she said regretfully, "I had had sense enough not to destroy all the letters you wrote me during the year and a half of your courtship."

He smiled in a gratified way. "I knew you would regret that some time," he said.

"Indeed I do," she replied. "I need a little change the worst sort of way, and the man who buys rags and old paper was here today. How wasteful we are in our youth!"

He looked at her reproachfully, and almost involuntarily his hand sought his pocketbook. It is seldom, indeed, that a resourceful woman has to make a direct request for money.—Chicago Post.

GREATEST DAY OF THE FAIR

The Advisory Board of our county fair announces that the first day, August 18, will be "Breckenridge County Day," which means the home coming of all the citizens far and near. The Advisory Board writes:

"The intention of our fair should be treated and looked forward to as a reunion of our families and friends; a place to come each year to mix and mingle with our friends and loved ones. It should be a place where we are to meet, not only to excel in our contests for pride and gain, but it should be a gathering of our people to renew their friendship, to make new acquaintances, and instead of a greed for gain and blue ribbons, it should be a contest with every individual who is present to extend to their fellowman a helping hand by hearty handshakes, and words of encouragement and each one should strive in this contest to do more for his neighbor and try to convey the good news from one to another; to make him feel better and by doing this the transference will take place and by helping ourselves we will help others.

An inspiration is to visit a place where all the men tip their hats, where they have the enterprise and the thought to take their hats off, and not merely attempt the courtesy. This little act is as important as speaking with words, even more so, and shows the social and civic pride of the home and the town.

The McChesney managers of this county, going over their polls of the county are confident Breckenridge will give McChesney from 75 to 125, over either Stanley or McDermott, with McDermott running second.

Splendid rain fall all over Breckenridge county last week. This insures a corn crop, the largest the county has had in many years. Everybody is feeling good over the outlook.

We had to leave out a lot of good items this week on account of rush of advertising and a short force.

ANSWER TO M'CHESNEY ARTICLE.

Louisville, Ky., July 31, 1915. Editor Breckenridge News, Cloverport, Ky. Dear Sir: In an article appearing in the News last week, a similar one appearing in a great many papers of Kentucky, it was set forth by the McChesney organization at Frankfort, conducted by Mr. Percy Haly, that Mr. Beckham was nominated and elected Senator last year in spite of the efforts of the liquor element to defeat him and that Mr. McChesney would be nominated and elected in the same way. As a member of the Beckham organization for fifteen years, his ardent supporter last year and a member of the Democratic State Campaign Committee, which conducted his race, I want to controvert this statement and set the good people of Breckenridge county, who are being deceived by designing politicians, right in this matter.

As a matter of fact, Mr. Beckham's nomination for the Senate was won for him by the votes of the liquor people. This was done through a deal made with the full knowledge and consent of

A Good Flour For The Jobbers—
PROFITABLE--Gets Repeat Orders

A Good Flour For The Bakers—
PROFITABLE—Makes More and Better Loaves

IS LEWISPORT BEST PATENT FLOUR

If not represented by your grocer, write us

LEWISPORT MILL CO., : Lewisport, Ky.

Mr. Beckham, and this deal carried with it the support of the Democratic organization of the City of Louisville, composed largely of saloonkeepers and their friends, and it was really the saloonkeepers of Louisville, deceived as they were by Mr. Beckham, that nominated and elected him Senator. The saloon element of Owensboro were handled in the same way by Mr. Urey Woodson. The saloon element of Paducah were handled in the same way through the influence of Judge W. A. Berry and Judge Chas. W. Emery. The saloon element of the City of Lexington were handled in the same way by Mr. John Skein, himself a saloonkeeper, who had charge of the Beckham organization. The same thing was attempted by Judge John Lassing in Newport and Covington, but the saloon people there did not fall for it. Mr. Stanley received a majority of the farmer vote. He was defeated by Mr. Beckham by secret deals made with the liquor element in the cities.

Now as to Mr. McChesney. He has lived fifteen years in the City of Frankfort, the capitol of the State; so have Mr. Beckham and Mr. Haly lived there all that time, yet these gentlemen, who are so anxious to receive the temperance votes of the rural districts, have never even called a local election in their own city. They are very much interested in the moral uplift of the good people of Breckenridge, Meade and Hancock counties, but they give protection to the saloonkeepers of Frankfort and have done so for fifteen years and have received the votes of that same element during all that time. None of them will deny this; none of them can deny it.

As a matter of fact, Mr. McChesney is a mere tool of corporate interests which are seeking to control the Democratic nomination for Governor, Auditor, Treasurer, Secretary of State and Clerk of the Court of Appeals; Mr. Stanley is the enemy of those corporate interests which are seeking to debauch Kentucky, hence, they are fighting, not in the open, but through an ambushade erected and labeled "State Wide Prohibition." This is a contest between Stanley and McChesney. Mr. McDermott and Mr. Bosworth are not in the running, though an earnest effort is being made upon the part of the McChesney people to give McDermott some strength. A vote for McDermott is a vote thrown away, or a half vote for McChesney.

I have always been frank with the Democracy of Breckenridge county. I am interested, unselfishly, in the future of the party of my native county and I say to you through the columns of The Breckenridge News that Mr. Stanley will carry every congressional district in the State on next Saturday; that he will be nominated for Governor on that day and that he will be elected in November.—Adv.

Yours very truly,
MILTON BOARD.

The Following Statement was Made in a Speech at The Woman's Christian Temperance Union in Louisville AGAINST McCHESNEY

Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp, President of the W. C. T. U. Says People do not Like His Associates and Many Drys Will go to Stanley.

"The prejudice against Mr. McChesney's candidacy," said Mrs. Beauchamp, "comes entirely because of his association with Percy Haly. There were at the beginning of the campaign hundreds of voters who for McChesney until it became known that he was the Haly candidate and the candidate of the Haly machine. Since that fact became generally known, there has been a revulsion of feeling and a surprisingly large number of dry votes will go to Stanley as a protest against the prohibition fight being fought with such instruments as the Haly machine provides.

"I believe that Mr. Stanley will be nominated and that the protesting prohibition voters will be the number of his majority."—Advertisement.

U. is for the County Unit Law. This not untrue but is not fair to me and other W. C. T. U. work. I am for State Wide Prohibition."

W. P. Walton For Secretary Of State.

FELLOW DEMOCRATS: I was the first to announce for secretary of state, moved thereto by the laudible ambition to serve the people in an official capacity as I long tried to serve them in private station. I felt too that I possessed the Jeffersonian test for office, knowing that I am capable, hoping that I am worthy and believing that I am honest. For thirty odd years I have as editor of Democratic newspapers and otherwise, helped to fight the battles of the party, without hope or reward, other than that which comes from duty well performed. I have never asked for an office before and do not now because I think the party owes me anything, but because I am sure I can be useful to it, by giving a faithful and honest discharge of the duties the important one I seek. Most of my opponents either hold or have office, some beyond their deserts, who are endeavoring to perpetuate themselves in office by making promises and offering offices ten times greater than they would have at their disposal. I have adopted no such tactics, have no friends to reward or enemies to punish, and if nominated will be free to discharge the duties of the office for the good of the public and not for family benefit. I invite the closest scrutiny of my life as a man and as a Democrat and never having wavered in my support of Democratic measures and candidates I confidently ask a careful consideration of my worth and promise if honored to return my charge unsullied and unstained.

Respectfully,
W. P. WALTON.

LIFE AND LONGEVITY.

Simply Prolonging One's Days on Earth Is Not Real Living.

What really constitutes life? Is it action, or is it merely existence? Who is the more useful, the man who gives his all in energy to service or he who conserves his forces and thereby prolongs his days? He lives most who accomplishes most. Activity in useful, productive or constructive effort is the real test of life. Length of years may content some, but restless, energetic souls will press forward, regardless of time, striving for a goal they may never attain, but always striving, and these only really live.

Life insurance presidents, being interested in the prolongation of existence of risks, bend their efforts to the teaching of elements of living, the avoidance of excesses, exposures or unnecessary risks of any kind and in this way really serve the world because they increase the productive years of man.

As a result of modern methods man really lives longer and better, but this is not the all in all of life. To live is to be active, to have a part in the creative effort of mankind, regardless of whether the span be long or short, so long as it is busy, for "an end is an end, whether it cometh on the winged heels of a week or the dull stretch of a century."—Omaha Bee.

WALL PAPERS AND LIGHT.

How Money May Be Wasted by Selecting the Wrong Colors.

"Talk about handing out free gas ranges or renting them out at a nominal rental," said a man in the employ of a gas company; "there is another item that encourages gas consumption, and that is wall papers.

"If I were running the business I would hand out free wall papers. But I would do the choosing. Rich deep greens and browns—they are the colors that bring up your bills and our profits."

How many people realize that a big percentage of their gas money may be sunk into their walls and wasted? It may be only a matter of color of your wall paper whether you light one or three burners.

White walls, of course, absorb the least light, only 30 per cent, but nearly everybody wants some color to meet the eye. A chrome yellow absorbs only 38 per cent. Paper of an orange shade robs you only of 50 per cent of your light.

It is when you get into the reds and greens and browns that the light begins to dim. A dark green wall paper, so restful to the eye, absorbs 82 per cent of the light. And paper of a deep chocolate leaves only 4 per cent of the light rays for use. Its power of absorption is 96 per cent.—New York Sun.

Democratic Editors See Victory for Claude B. Terrell

In Race for Nomination for State Treasurer

In August Primary Election.

If there is one contest in the approaching Democratic State primary election about which the Democratic newspapers of Kentucky seem to be agreed it is that the Hon. Claude B. Terrell, of Trimble County, should and will be nominated for the office of State Treasurer. Mr. Terrell has made a runaway race of it from the day he entered the contest. His especial fitness for the office he is seeking has appealed to the Democratic editors of every section of Kentucky, and they have done much to mold the sentiment of their communities in his favor by informing the people as to the character of the man and his qualifications for public service. Herewith are quoted brief paragraphs taken from editorials of newspapers published in every section of Kentucky. It would require not less than two pages of a newspaper to publish in full these unsolicited words of commendation of Mr. Terrell and his candidacy:

The Calloway Times: He has served three terms in the Legislature, two as Speaker, and is a clean, fair-minded, sober and discreet man. He will poll a splendid vote in this county next month.

The Ballard County Advance: Mr. Terrell is a man well equipped for this important office and will make a splendid official. He is a man you like better the more you see him.

Paducah News-Democrat: He is a substantial business man, and is held in the highest esteem by all who know him, and has many friends in this section of Kentucky who will give him their support.

The Princeton Leader: While here Mr. Terrell met a large number of our people and made a very favorable impression. He is well equipped from an official standpoint to fill the office of State Treasurer.

Fulton Daily Leader: He is a staunch Democrat, is familiar with the public affairs of the State by virtue of his commanding position the past few years in the legislature and is well fitted in every way to make the people of Kentucky a faithful State Treasurer and guardian of the funds of the commonwealth.

Clinton Gazette: Mr. Terrell has made a reputation as a man who is to be depended upon to do exactly what he promises to do.

Arlington Courier: A better man cannot be found for this place. He is self-made, public spirited, and a friend to the working man.

Mayfield Messenger: He is a great friend to education and a constant fighter for good roads. With him as State Treasurer the people can be assured that the affairs of that office will be conducted honestly and according to law.

Bowling Green Times-Journal: Mr. Terrell will add strength to the ticket selected next month, and it is gratifying to know that his nomination is a certainty.

Bowling Green News: The press of the state is loud in its praise of him as a Democrat, a high-class gentleman and an honorable incorruptible man of fine business and executive ability and one who never has and never will betray a trust either in private or public life.

Todd County Progress: Mr. Terrell enjoys a wide acquaintance in the state, made a splendid Speaker of the House, and is a man of winning personality.

Smith's Grove Times: The county papers over the state are giving Terrell their support, and it is likely that he will carry the state by a large majority than most candidates.

Cloverport News: He is a man who has made good in all his public trusts. He is a man well equipped for the office he is asking.

Springfield Sun: The manner in which he conducted the affairs of his great trust as Speaker won for him many strong friends over the state, who are now endeavoring to endorse his valuable service.

New Haven Echo: He is of the younger set of business men and possesses the push that has always been lacking in the state, and has been so much needed.

Seabree Banner: The ticket needs strength to win in November, and Claude B. Terrell will add much along that line. Webster County voters can well afford to support him.

Pembroke Journal: Terrell looks like a winner. He has the support of the leading newspapers of the state. In all official positions he has served his constituents faithfully.

Big Sandy News: In Eastern Kentucky Mr. Terrell is very strong. No citizen who wants clean men in important offices will make any mistake in voting for him.

Hazel Green Herald: No Democrat can possibly make a mistake in voting for Terrell, for he has been tried in many positions of honor and trust and never yet has he been found wanting.

Robertson Advance: He does not permit politics to make of him a selfish or biased man. He is able to take care of the Treasurer's office, and he will carry this county.

Ewing Enquirer: He is widely known as a man of ability, as a promoter of the good roads movement and all educational matters. He is worthy of the support of any man who wants to place the right man in the right place.

Russell Times: Democrats want men nominated that will bring strength to the ticket in the general election. They will make no mistake in nominating Terrell for Treasurer.

Whitesburg Mountain Eagle: As State Treasurer he will be "at home," and besides doing much good for his constituents he will be in part repaid for the excellent work he has already done for Kentucky.

Pike County News: A most excellent gentleman and fully qualified for the office he seeks.

A TWICE-TOLD TALE

One of Interest to Our Readers.

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of a Cloverport man is confirmed after three years.

W. M. Johnson, prop. restaurant, Cloverport, says: "For six years, I was afflicted with kidney trouble. I had pains in the small of my back and was lame when I got up in the morning. I tired easily, felt languid and was nervous. Dizzy spells and headaches also bothered me. The passages of the kidneys were too frequent, obliging me to get up at night. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me great relief." (Statement given March 5, 1908.)

Over three years later Mr. Johnson said: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills and consider them an excellent medicine for kidney trouble."

which states that he and Mr. J. F. Grimes, Assistant State Commissioner of Roads and Bridges, inspected the bridge over Hites Run Creek on the Pike leading from Hardinsburg to Cloverport, and also the bridge over Tar Fork Creek on the Bowling Green Road, about two miles South of the City of Cloverport, and also the bridge over Murray's Branch in the City of Cloverport, and respectfully report that a new bridge is necessary across Hites Run Creek on the Hardinsburg and Cloverport Pike, and plans and specifications and estimates of cost of the construction of said bridge was made by the State Department of Roads and Bridges, and also plans and specifications and estimates of cost of all necessary repairs on the bridge over Tar Fork Creek on the Bowling Green Road, and also plans and specifications and estimates of cost for all necessary repairs on the bridge over Murray's Branch in the City of Cloverport; all of said specifications and estimates of cost for the building and repairing of said bridges being submitted to the Court, and a ye a and nay vote taken, resulted unanimously in favor of building and repairing of said bridges, and the County Road Engineer is here by ordered and directed to at once advertise for bids, as provided by law, for the construction of said Hites Run bridge, and the repairing of the Tar Fork and Murray's Branch bridges, and he will report his acts herein at some future time of this court.

Now comes Mr. J. F. Grimes, Assistant State Commissioner of Roads and Bridges and together with the Court proceeded to examine the bids for the construction of the proposed Pike Road to be constructed under State Aid for the year 1915, and proceeded to pass upon the bids submitted for the construction of said Pike Road, one by Weatherholt and Bohler and one by Smith and Crahan, these two bids being the only ones submitted for the construction of said Pike Road, after due consideration and deliberation upon said bids, and upon motion duly made, seconded and carried the bids were both rejected by the court, a ye a and nay vote being taken resulted unanimously in a rejection of the two bids, because of the fact that the amounts asked for in each bid was considered by the court as being excessive.

Present: Hon. D. D. Dowell, presiding judge of the Breckinridge County Court, and the following named Justices of the Peace, to-wit: D. C. Heron, W. W. Baxter, S. D. Cox, Abe Bennett, J. J. Keenan and C. E. Robbins, being all the Justices of the Peace in Commission.

Keenan, which motion carried, it is ordered and directed that Paul Compton, Treasurer of Breckinridge County, issue county obligations to be signed by the Treasurer, approved by the County Judge and attested by the County Clerk over his seal, in the sum of Eight Thousand ($8,000.00) Dollars in various denominations not exceeding $500.00 each, negotiable and payable at the Bank of Hardinsburg and Trust Co., Hardinsburg, Kentucky, subject to a discount of one per cent when issued and bearing five per cent interest from date until paid, due and payable on or before April 20th, 1916, interest payable annually. Said amount to be issued for the improvement and maintenance of public roads of Breckinridge county, and to be collected and paid on the above date, to wit: April 20th, 1916, when the sheriff makes his settlement of taxes collected, due and payable in the year 1915.

The vote being taken, said motion carried unanimously, and is made the order of this court.

In Re Macadam Road and State Aid.

The court having heretofore considered the construction of five miles of pike, with state aid and supervision, and it appearing and having been heretofore determined that the county is not financially able and it is not expedient to use the county's entire road funds as suggested and discussed, upon motion duly made, seconded and carried it was unanimously voted to abandon the proposed plan; whereupon, it appearing that Breckinridge county has paid into the state about Twenty-five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars, and that Hardinsburg District Number 1 has about that sum to expend, and it further appearing that the suggested arrangement will not deprive the rural districts of their portion of the money so much needed by them and it further appearing that the Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars thus available from the county will be supplemented by private subscription sufficient to construct two and (2 24 100) twenty-four one hundredth miles of pike, it was moved by D. C. Heron and seconded by C. E. Robbins, after an argument to court by Judge Moorman, and a general discussion, that all action be suspended on the question of state aid for roads until July 2, 1915, to which time this court shall adjourn, and it was further moved that Judge D. D. Dowell, C. E. Robbins, H. C. Murray, Paul Compton and H. DeH. Moorman, in connection with the County Road Engineer, be appointed a committee to investigate the advisability of building 124-100 miles of pike out the Louisville road and one mile out Leitchfield-road to top of hill and then across to the Hartford road and out the same the remainder of the mile, thus dispensing with two long bad hills on the Hartford road and the necessity of making a long fill or build a bridge, and said committee will communicate with the State Road Department and invite its representative to be here July 2nd, and request and urge the approval of this plan, and will make full and complete report of such facts and figures as the committee deems important for this court's consideration and action, and on motion duly made, seconded and carried, court adjourned to July 2, 1915.

It is ordered by the court that the following Justices of the Peace be, and they are hereby allowed their per diem: Abe Bennett, 2 days, $6.00; S. D. Cox, 2 days, $6.00; J. J. Keenan, 2 days, $6.00; W. W. Baxter, 2 days, $6.00; D. C. Heron, 2 days, $6.00; and C. E. Robbins, 2 days, $6.00.

On motion duly made, seconded and carried, court adjourned finally.

WHO'S GOING TO PAY?

Kentucky's State Debt is Now $2,355,167.00—State-Wide Prohibition Will Deprive the State of $700,000.00 a Year—Where Will It Come From?—Political Office Seekers Care Not For State Debts—They Are After the Jobs

A little more than a year ago the County Unit Law was enacted, as the definite policy of both the Democratic and Republican parties in Kentucky. Under its provisions 106 counties now have prohibition as fully as they could have under State-wide prohibition. As a political issue the liquor question was thought to be settled. As a moral issue it was settled in accordance with the wishes of temperance people all over the State. Each county can vote out saloons when the people living in them want to do so.

Some politicians, desiring an exciting issue to aid them in obtaining control of the business and political affairs of the State, resurrected the liquor question, and proclaimed State-wide prohibition the paramount issue. Indirectly, therefore, the question will be voted upon at the primary, to be held August 7, because one of the candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor has made that issue a fundamental part of his political program.

It is well that the voters know and consider some of the facts that vitally affect the welfare of the state, and of themselves as citizens and taxpayers, before voting to tear up our economic system. Many ridiculous and false statements have been made by political prohibitionists, calculated and intended to deceive the voters. But here are facts that no truthful man can deny:

CONDITION OF THE STATE TREASURY

On June 30th, 1915, one month ago, the condition of the State finances was as follows:

Outstanding interest bearing warrants$3,209,589.00
Cash in treasury..... 854,422.00
Leaving a deficit, or debt, bearing interest 2,355,167.00

The interest on this debt at 5 per cent is $117,758 a year. The debt is growing larger all the time. Both principal and interest are becoming an increasing burden upon the taxpayers.

REVENUES

The entire amount of revenue paid annually by all forms of the liquor business to the State treasury, to the counties and to the cities and towns of Kentucky, is as follows:

State revenue$700,000.00
Revenue to the city of Louisville 681,000.00
Revenue to cities and towns other than Louisville.... 414,000.00
Revenue to counties from application of the county tax 200,000.00
$1,945,000.00

While only $700,000 of the nearly $2,000,000 derived from the liquor business is paid directly to the State treasury, yet the $1,245,000 paid to the cities, towns and counties of the State are of great financial assistance to them, and in this way undoubtedly promotes the prosperity of the State.

To say nothing of the revenues to cities and counties, if the $700,000 paid by the liquor business direct to the State treasury be thrown away, as will be the case if State-wide prohibition is adopted, the State deficit, or debt, must at once be increased by that amount, making it over $3,000,000 the first year, and this state debt must continue to increase at the rate of more than a million dollars a year.

Poetry and Noses.

I have read that no poem was ever written to a nose. Can you, offhand, recall a single rapturous or even admiring description of one? I search my memory in vain, but produce instead one instance that has always interested me by neglect. You recall that little poem of Browning's, "A Face," the brief and charming description of a girl's profile against a background of gold. The "matchless mold" of softly parted lips, the neck "three fingers might surround" and the "fruit shaped perfect chin" all receive their due of praise; the nose, a seeming necessity in any profile, is not even mentioned. It may be as well; each reader supplies in the lovely face the line that suits him best. The poet may have feared that by its mere mention he would produce the effect too often given by the nose in real life—a heaviness that mars an otherwise charming face.—Atlantic.

Dispendency Due to Indigestion.

"About three months ago, when I was suffering from indigestion which caused headache and dizzy spells and made me feel tired and despondent, I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. Geo. Hon. Macdon, N. Y. "This medicine proved to be the very thing I needed, as one day's treatment relieved me greatly. I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they rid me of this trouble." Obtainable everywhere.

til other property in the State is taxed sufficiently to pay off the huge accumulated debt and also provide the additional revenue necessary to make up the constant loss and bear at the same time the current running expenses of the State government. Nothing is plainer than that.

No kind of sophistry or soft-soapistry can fool intelligent people in regard to these facts.

FALSE STATEMENTS ANSWERED.

It has been claimed by the political state-widlers that state-wide prohibition will save the people money by reducing crime, pauperism, and insanity, thereby reducing the cost of criminal prosecutions. Facts and authentic statistics utterly disprove these statements. They point to Kansas as a shining example of prohibition. The following facts, taken from government statistics, prove conclusively that Kansas is not the state-wide paradise it is claimed to be:

Number of PRISONERS per 100,000 population:
Kansas 90.94
Nine license states (average)..... 73.54

Number of PAUPERS per 100,000 population:
Kansas 43.49
Nine license states (average)..... 25.42

(These nine states are all agricultural states similar to Kansas.)
Number of INSANE PERSONS per 100,000 population:
Kansas 172.3
Seventeen license states (average)..... 124.3

Number of DIVORCES per 100,000 population:
Kansas 286
Thirty-one license states (average)..... 183.5

Number of DIVORCES granted to wives for cruelty per 100,000 population:
Kansas 24.3
Twenty-four license states (average)..... 14.1

The relative number of savings accounts is often quoted as a basis of comparison as to the prosperity of different states. The report of the Comptroller of the Currency shows that on June 4, 1913, Kansas had 1,148 savings depositories for each 100,000 population. Twenty-seven license states had an average of 9,260 savings depositories per 100,000 population. These twenty-seven states are agricultural states similar to Kansas. So Kansas shows no better than other states in that respect.

DEATH RATE AND DRUNKENNESS.
A few comparative figures from other states may be interesting. North Carolina and Maine, "dry" states, show respectively a death rate of 17.3 and 15.3 per 100,000 population. Nine-

(1) IF FARM LANDS PAY IT, THE TAX ON FARMS MUST BE INCREASED 50 PER CENT.
(2) IF LIVE STOCK HAS TO PAY IT, THAT CLASS OF PROPERTY MUST BE TAXED THREE TIMES WHAT IT IS AT PRESENT.
(3) IF THE MERCHANTS OF THE STATE WERE TO PAY IT THEIR TAXES MUST BE FIVE TIMES WHAT THEY ARE NOW.
(4) IF RAILROADS ARE TO PAY IT, THEIR ASSESSMENT MUST BE DOUBLED.
(5) IF MINING PROPERTY IS REQUIRED TO PAY IT, THEIR ASSESSMENT MUST BE MORE THAN 100 TIMES WHAT IT IS NOW.

No one class of property owners will have to bear all this burden of taxation, but it must fall upon each and every taxpayer in the state with more or less severity. Will it pay to listen to the demand of office seeking politicians, who themselves pay little or none of the taxes, but who simply want fat offices, and are using the state-wide prohibition issue as a false campaign cry to get votes for their own advancement and personal profit?—Adv.

Scene Painting.

In the past half century and more, especially since the improvement of the electric light, scene painting has become very elaborate and very expensive. Instead of being kept in its proper place as the decoration of the drama, as a beautiful accessory of the action, it has often been pushed to the front, so as to attract attention to itself and thereby to distract attention from the play which it was supposed to illuminate. Shakespeare has been smothered in scenery, and the art of the actor has been subordinated to the art of the scene painter.—Brander Matthews in Scribner's Magazine.

His Favorite Play.

Edith—That Mr. Phan is conversationally impossible. Ethel—Why so? Edith—We were talking about the theatre, and when I inquired what was his favorite play he said if he had his favorite play he was seeing a man steal second.—Boston Transcript.

teen license states show a smaller death rate, the average being 12.9 per cent. Memphis, "dry," afforded in 1913 the distressing spectacle of 64 murders per 100,000 population; Milwaukee, "wet," had only 4. Atlanta, "dry," in 1912, had 39 murders per 100,000 population; Philadelphia, "wet," had 2; Chicago, "wet," 9; Topeka, "dry," shows, in 1910, 1 arrest for drunkenness for every 64 residents; Cincinnati, "wet," 1 for every 267 residents.

The prohibition state of Maine is constantly referred to as a shining example of the results of state-wide prohibition. In Portland, their chief city, the arrests for drunkenness increased from 1,567, in 1901, to 4,533, in 1912. During that time the population increased 16 per cent, while the arrests for drunkenness increased 300 per cent. So far as Portland is concerned prohibition does not seem to prohibit.

OUR NEIGHBOR STATES.

Right at our doors, Tennessee, with a $12,000,000 state debt, and state-wide prohibition, has had an increase of costs of criminal prosecutions in six years of more than double what it was under the local option license system. The financial condition of Nashville, the capital city, is such that its bankrupt affairs may have to be placed in the hands of a receiver.

It is known to all men that West Virginia, which has had state-wide prohibition for only one year, is practically paralyzed financially for want of money to pay the current expenses of the state. During the same time the number of prisoners in the Charleston jail, in the capital city of the state, increased from 39, on May 1, 1914, to 92, on May 1, 1915. This, too, disproves that state prohibition saves costs of criminal prosecutions.

BESIDES THE ABOVE FACTS, THOUGHTFUL MEN MUST NOT FORGET THAT STATE-WIDE PROHIBITION WILL WIPE OUT $6,500,000 PAID ANNUALLY BY KENTUCKY DISTILLERS FOR GRAIN; THAT $2,200,000 PAID ANNUALLY AS WAGES WILL CEASE TO BE PAID; THAT $2,405,000 NOW PAID ANNUALLY FOR COAL AND BARRELS WILL NO LONGER BE EXPENDED; THAT THREE-QUARTERS OF A MILLION DOLLARS ANNUALLY PAID IN INTEREST BY DISTILLERS AND BREWERS TO KENTUCKY BANKS WOULD NO LONGER BE ADDED TO THEIR EARNINGS, AND THAT $60,000,000 BROUGHT INTO KENTUCKY ANNUALLY FROM OUTSIDE THE STATE WILL CEASE TO FLOW INTO OUR BUSINESS CHANNELS.

Ninety-five per cent of the product of Kentucky distillers is shipped out of the state, bringing into our business life a constant stream of foreign money.

Practical men, knowing that nothing can be gained for temperance, morality or economy, are determined to stand by the present system of local, county self government, and not destroy or drive from the state the countless millions of tax-paying capital and property that now constitutes one of the state's chief industrial assets. To encourage a policy of confiscation and destruction of state revenues, by nominating candidates pledged to such a program, means to the taxpayer nothing more nor less than the following necessary shifting of the tax burden:

(1) IF FARM LANDS PAY IT, THE TAX ON FARMS MUST BE INCREASED 50 PER CENT.
(2) IF LIVE STOCK HAS TO PAY IT, THAT CLASS OF PROPERTY MUST BE TAXED THREE TIMES WHAT IT IS AT PRESENT.
(3) IF THE MERCHANTS OF THE STATE WERE TO PAY IT THEIR TAXES MUST BE FIVE TIMES WHAT THEY ARE NOW.
(4) IF RAILROADS ARE TO PAY IT, THEIR ASSESSMENT MUST BE DOUBLED.
(5) IF MINING PROPERTY IS REQUIRED TO PAY IT, THEIR ASSESSMENT MUST BE MORE THAN 100 TIMES WHAT IT IS NOW.

No one class of property owners will have to bear all this burden of taxation, but it must fall upon each and every taxpayer in the state with more or less severity. Will it pay to listen to the demand of office seeking politicians, who themselves pay little or none of the taxes, but who simply want fat offices, and are using the state-wide prohibition issue as a false campaign cry to get votes for their own advancement and personal profit?—Adv.

FINDS NO REMEDY EQUAL TO TANLAC

William H. Howard Says He Tried Everything Else Without Help.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 3.—William H. Howard, who lives at 225 West Jefferson street, here, and is widely known as an advertising man, is one of those who declares he has been greatly benefited by Tanlac, the premier preparation.

"For a long time," he said recently, "I suffered from a catarrhal affection of the stomach, and I never have found anything which did me so much good as Tanlac. I had used pretty nearly everything before my friends recommended Tanlac to me. It helped me almost at once, and I am glad to offer public testimony to its value."

Chronic catarrh, which affects the mucus membranes, is one of the most prevalent and distressing maladies known. The trouble is almost universal. Offensive breath, coughing, nervousness, sneezing, headaches, poor digestion, loss of appetite, unsound sleep and susceptibility to colds are among the results from the malady.

Tanlac has proved of special value in the treatment of catarrhal troubles. Hundreds have testified to the good it has done them. It is now being sold in Cloverport at Wedding's Drug Store, and in Irvington at Irvington Pharmacy.

RUSSIA FORESAW WARSAW BATTLE

Last Line Before City a Real Trench Gibraltar.

WORK REQUIRED MONTHS.

Correspondent Describes Formidable Defenses He Saw on Battle Front. Pronounced by Military Experts to Be the Best in All Europe—Six Rows, One Behind the Other.

What is probably the most important battle of the war so far and one marked by horrible slaughter on both sides occurred on the outskirts of Warsaw. The Russians, it seems, foresaw this engagement and had erected the most complete system of trenches at this point. A correspondent of the Chicago News, who spent some time at this front, describes the fortifications as follows:

"These defenses are called the Blonie-Grodek line. This is halfway between Warsaw and the old line of defense on the Bzura and Rawka rivers, on which the Russians and Germans began fighting on Dec. 19.

"The new line at Blonie is about fifteen miles from the city. It was constructed by the Russians during the winter. It was not built by soldiers, but by Polish laborers employed by the Russians at 75 cents a day. The line ran from the curve of the Vistula north of Warsaw, at the fortress of Novo Georgievsk, south through the town of Blonie, then south to the town of Grodek, then southeast to a point of the Vistula river virtually at the fortress of Ivangorod. It was about fifty miles long.

"This line constituted the last defensive position of the Russians west of the Vistula river. I have been over parts of the line, and in places which I visited it consisted of six distinct lines of trenches, one behind another, from 200 yards to 1,000 yards apart. These trenches were constructed with the utmost care and were pronounced by the foreign military observers who accompanied me the best constructed trenches they had ever seen. They were far better than the original defenses of the Russians on the Vistula and Rawka rivers.

"The trenches are connected by sunk-passageways in different places. These afford an opportunity for the troops to retire from trench to trench. There are elaborate protections of barbed wire entanglements on wooden posts. Some of these entanglements project high above the surface of the ground. Others are only two feet high and are constructed in a broad ditch, which prevents their being seen at a distance.

Built Up With Sand Bags.

"As to the trenches themselves, they are deep enough so that a man may stand upright in them and still be protected. They are elaborately built up with sand bags, and the front part has been covered with sod. They are so situated that the field of fire is over at least 1,000 yards of open flat plain, unobstructed by trees or any shelter for an enemy, so that a charge made by the attacking troops would have to be in plain view of every Russian soldier in the trenches."

MRS. BECKER'S BRAVE BATTLE

Courageous Woman Did Everything to Save Her Husband.

TAUGHT SCHOOL TO ASSIST

In the End She Finds Her Home Gone and Mother and Baby Dead—Buoyed Up Condemned Man Until He Was in the Very "Valley of the Shadow of Death."

Back of Charles Becker's tenacious fight for life was a woman—Helen Lynch Becker, his wife. In the final analysis it was an example of the primordial battle of man for woman and woman for man. With elemental strength and courage the woman fought for her mate against the powerful hand of the state which took his life for planning the murder of Herman Rosenthal, gambler.

When Becker first was trapped she went to his assistance without delay. When the news that a second trial had been granted came to her beside her mother's coffin she arose and in joy hastened to greet Lawyer Shay, who brought the news, with a kiss. The evening of the execution found her seeking the governor to plead for mercy.

There have been hints of secret defense funds raised by the police and by gamblers. However, so far as positive information goes, Mrs. Becker, but for the help of Police Lieutenant John Becker and Jackson Becker, brothers of her husband, has fought practically alone.

At the outset of the contest she had money. Becker was credited with a fortune made by his levies as chief of the "strong arm" squad. At the time of his arrest he had just completed, though he had not yet occupied, a handsome home at 3239 Oliville avenue, New York.

Teaches to Keep Up Fight.

What cash Mrs. Becker controlled was paid out on the first trial and in prosecuting the first and only successful appeal. She then returned to work as a schoolteacher. After the second trial the Bronx home was pledged for counsel fees. A lawyer holds the mortgage. It is said that Mrs. Becker's only resource now is her position as a schoolteacher.

Mrs. Becker is a small but well proportioned woman in the thirties. Constitutional vigor shows in her snappy, dark eyes, colorful cheeks and firm, erect carriage.

In the three years of her husband's fight her remarkable courage has won praise from every one who had the opportunity to study her under the most trying circumstances. The wives of "Lefty Louie" and "Gyp the Blood," the two married gun men who went to the chair, met their tragedies with bravery. Mrs. Herman Rosenthal, the slain gambler's widow, was strong in her demand for vengeance. But Mrs. Becker under an agonizing strain of adversity showed a spirit of fight and fortitude that compelled admiration.

Kept Husband's Hope Alive.

From the first she kept up her own hopes and buoyed her husband's sagging spirits. What his wife's pluck meant as a support only Becker himself knew. During the last weeks she always carried a cheering smile into the death house at Sing Sing. Her high spirits radiated throughout the gloom of the condemned tier. She had a smiling nod for every inmate of the place.

Marton T. Manton, counsel for Becker in the second trial and associated with Bourke Cockran in the legal moves up to the last, recently paid this compliment to Mrs. Becker:

"She is a wonderful woman. I have never known another who stood such a strain so bravely and so well. Mrs. Becker has undergone experiences which would have crushed almost any one."

Only a few days ago Mrs. Becker said to a reporter:

"In the ten years of my married life I have never had any reason to regret that I married Charles. He has been a splendid husband, and I would rather lose all the other members of my family. Of course my brothers and sisters are dear to me, and they have been splendid to me through all my trouble, but they can never mean as much to me as my husband."

So far as her public expressions go she always has believed staunchly in her husband's innocence. She had unbounded faith in his native force of character, for Becker had the sort of strength that served him well as chief of the old strong arm squad at police headquarters. She always thought if Becker had taken the witness stand at his trials he would have forced his innocence upon the minds of judge and jury.

"He never had an opportunity to defend himself," she said once.
